Community Reviews. The Idolatry of God, is a deep reflection on what a majority of Christians believe and how our beliefs build up, not tear down, our dissatisfaction and difficulty in life. It's a poignant and much needed critique on modern Christianity. It will challenge your faith and that is a good thing.

God's promise to us is that we are saved through the work of Jesus on the cross. On the cross, Jesus' death paid the penalty for our sin, making a way for us to have a restored relationship with the Father. If we repent of our sins and believe the good news about Jesus, our relationship with God is mended and the chains of idolatry broken.

The biggest idol we have is “self” which is the cause of adultery or other sins. Satan got Eve to think about self instead of God. Renewing our mind daily with the Word of God is the tool to overcoming idolatry. It brings conviction, restores our relationship with God and hope. Great post Barb, will be back for future post on this subject.
