Genesis 6-9 These are the generations of Noah: Noah was a just man and perfect in his generations, and Noah walked with God. In the 1970s when I first began to study Bible prophecy, I viewed "As the days of Noah" as a time of great violence and immorality. I never imagined that a time would come when mankind's DNA would once again be altered.

And Noah went in, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him, into the ark, because of the waters of the flood. -Genesis 7:6-7. While Noah and his sons were 100% human, we are not told the same about the wives of his 3 sons, Shem, Ham and Japheth. What is clear is that one or more of these women were carrying the Nephilim gene.

Yes, there were four men, but Noah gave his Y chromosome to each of his sons. Unless there was a mutation (entirely possible), each of the sons carried the exact same Y chromosome. We do not know how much mutation occurred prior to the flood. With the long life spans of the antediluvian patriarchs,...

According to Noah, he stated that even under apartheid, he felt trouble fitting in because it was a crime "for [him] to be born as a mixed-race baby", hence the title of his book. By the time of his birth, however, mixed marriages had already been decriminalised; before he was 1 year old, the laws concerning mixed relations were scrapped altogether.

Noah was a righteous man, and perfect in his generations: Noah walked with God (ASV 1901). The perfection discussed here is from the Hebrew word tamiym or without blemish, sound, healthful, without spot, unimpaired. This means that 1) his gene pool had not been corrupted and 2) he was spiritually obedient to God's Word.
