One of the nice things about technical writing courses is that most of the papers have graphics in them—or at least they should. A lot of professional, technical writing contains graphics—drawings, diagrams, photographs, illustrations of all sorts, tables, pie charts, bar charts, line graphs, flow charts, and so on.

If I'm illustrating with traditional materials I'll use Photoshop to help with layout, cropping, and touch ups/final details. But if I'm illustrating solely digital, I'll usually stick with Procreate on the iPad Pro. Do you own or have you used a Graphic Drawing Tablet when illustrating? I used to use a Wacom Bamboo tablet + Photoshop.
